LIARS PARADOX: THIS SENTENCE IS FALSE

Think you you can't be fooled? You just were. Read it again. Don't walk by sight. -- Photos by Vicki Vale

The following is an excerpt from the TV series Star Trek Season 2 Episode 8 titled I, MUDD. Captain Kirk tells the android Norman, "Everything Harry tells you is a lie. Remember that. Everything Harry tells you is a lie." Harry (Harcourt Fenton Mudd) states, "Now listen to this carefully, Norman. I am... lying."

Norman: You say you are lying, but if everything you say is a lie, then you are telling the truth, but you cannot tell the truth because everything you say is a lie, but you lie... You tell the truth but you cannot for you lie... illogical! Illogical! Please explain! You are human. Only humans can explain their behavior! Please explain!

Captain Kirk responds by giving him the same statement the other androids have repeatedly given him before: "I am not programmed to respond in that area." (Norman goes blank.) Spock says, "I believe they are all immobilized, Captain."

Jeremiah 9:1-3 Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

WHAT IS “FAKE NEWS”?

The popularity of the term fake news is only a couple years old. Fake news isn't merely biased reporting or journalistic mistakes. There are plenty of mainstream and reputable media organizations, and even good journalists occasionally get bad information or fail to report accurately. But fake news is specifically designed to mislead or to create outrage in order to spread virally.

DID YA HEAR THE NEWS?

“Novel information is thought to be more valuable than redundant information,” says study co-author Sinan Aral, a professor of management at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. “People who spread novel information gain social status because they’re thought to be ‘in the know’ or to have inside information.”

"There's actually extensive study in human communications in why certain news spreads faster, not just a common sense understanding of it," explained Deb Roy, the third co-author of the paper. "It's well understood that there's a bias to our sharing negative over positive news, and also a bias to sharing surprising over unsurprising news."

Acts 17:21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

WHAT IS "NEWS"?

A recent study from Stanford found that most middle school, high school and college students couldn't tell a difference between sponsored advertisements, biased propaganda and real news.

One question reveals how badly we've failed at teaching critical reading skills and basic discernment principles. Elis Estrada, program manager of Washington, D.C.'s News Literacy Project, says that when he asks students where they get their news, many respond, "What is news?" "They don't even know what it is," she says. "The fact that we have to start there is really telling."

Critical reading and thinking can certainly be one way to inoculate against the viral spread of deliberate misinformation.

WHAT IS “BACK FIRE”?

The Misconception: When your beliefs are challenged with facts, you alter your opinions and incorporate the new information into your thinking.

The Truth: When your deepest convictions are challenged by contradictory evidence, your beliefs get stronger.

Once something is added to your collection of beliefs, you protect it from harm. You do it instinctively and unconsciously when confronted with attitude-inconsistent information. Just as confirmation bias shields you when you actively seek information, the backfire effect defends you when the information seeks you, when it blindsides you. Coming or going, you stick to your beliefs instead of questioning them. When someone tries to correct you, tries to dilute your misconceptions, it backfires and strengthens them instead. Over time, the backfire effect helps make you less skeptical of those things which allow you to continue seeing your beliefs and attitudes as true and proper.

Genesis 1: <sup>1</sup> Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? <sup>2</sup> And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: <sup>3</sup> But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. <sup>4</sup> And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: <sup>5</sup> For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

WHAT IS THE GOSPEL?

True Gospel Vs. False Gospel Chart

False Gospel	True Gospel
He who believes the false gospel sows to the flesh and falsely believes that he will never reap corruption (Galatians 6,7)	The believer of the true gospel sows to the Spirit and will reap life everlasting (Galatians 6,7)
I am justified by faith so my sanctification is automatically applied to me; I don't have to actually live a holy life.	There is the necessity of a holy life. Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. 2Timothy 2:19
As long as you believe Jesus Christ died for your sins, you may disbelieve his word and therefore disobey all of his commands to believers.	"God hath not called us to uncleanness, but unto holiness." (1 Thess. 4:7)
Christ was holy so I don't have to be holy. His holiness removes the need for me to walk in holiness. When God looks at me he sees Jesus so I am blameless regardless of my continual practice of sin.	"He hath chosen us in him [Christ] before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love. (Eph. 1:4)
It does not matter whether I sow to my flesh or to the (Holy) Spirit. Grace replaces obedience. Obedience is optional because of grace. It does not matter what I do; I will reap eternal life regardless of whether I sow to the flesh or to the Spirit.	"If you sow to your flesh, you shall of your flesh reap corruption, but if you sow to the Spirit you shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. (See Gal. 6:8)

True Gospel Vs. False Gospel Chart

False Gospel	True Gospel
It does not matter whether I sow to my flesh or to the (Holy) Spirit. Grace replaces obedience. Obedience is optional because of grace. It does not matter what I do; I will reap eternal life regardless of whether I sow to the flesh or to the Spirit.	"If you sow to your flesh, you shall of your flesh reap corruption, but if you sow to the Spirit you shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. (See Gal. 6:8)
Jesus Christ saves us from the penalty of sin only. As blood-bought Christians, we may live under the power of sin and enjoy the pleasure of sin. (The Bible says this is "having a form of godliness but denying the power thereof."-2 Tim. 3:5)	Jesus Christ saves us from the power, the pleasure, and the penalty of sin.
Sin is no longer an issue in my life; Jesus Christ paid for my sins so my victory (through yielding to the Holy Spirit) over the world, the flesh, and the devil is of no consequence	The ability to sin is not eradicated, but sin no longer has the dominion and rule over our lives. We must put sin completely out of our lives. The soul whom God saves has a new nature and a new heart put within and desires to obey God fully.
The "cross" means death to Jesus Christ only, not to myself and my sinful ways.	The true gospel of Christ demands the death, burial, and resurrection, of you, the sinner, in Christ Jesus.
I can remain under the power of sin and sow to the flesh, My hope of heaven is secure because I prayed the "sinner's prayer." I can have the new life in Christ without forsaking my old life of sin.	He is who under grace is not dominated by sin. "For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace." Rom 6:14
There is no cross to take up. I don't have to say goodbye to my old, self-serving way of life. . . I merely "tack on" salvation to my present life of sin.	The true gospel of Christ sets forth the cross of Christ as the abrupt, violent end of all that you are by nature and raises you to a new life in Jesus Christ with the shackles of sin broken.

EXAMINER OF TRUTH

True Gospel Vs. False Gospel Chart

False Gospel	True Gospel
God's grace will abound toward me while I continue to sin. Grace means that I am automatically forgiven while I continue to sin willfully.	God's grace will not abound while I continue to sin. "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid." (Romans 6:2) God is not mocked by a false definition of grace.
The false gospel denies the power of the grace of God to break the power of sin in the Christian's life.	The grace of God which now reigns, teaches us to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts, and to live soberly, righteously and godly in this present world. Titus 2:11, 12
The false gospel denies the power of the grace of God over sin. The professing Christian surrenders to the lust of the flesh under the guise of "liberty" and continues to produce the same sinful fruits that he did before he came to Jesus Christ.	The true Christian does not use liberty for an occasion to the flesh, as a "cloak of maliciousness," or as a servant of corruption. He uses his liberty to be a servant of God.
Converts of the false gospel have a "form of godliness" but they "deny the power thereof." These false converts bring forth bad fruit: They are lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God; having a form of godliness but denying the power thereof; from such turn away.	The power of the gospel works in the life of the believer, setting him free from the power and tyranny of sin, and producing in him the reign of righteousness, so the saved soul can then walk in newness of life by the indwelling Holy Spirit. Yes, God's child is changed into the likeness of Christ, as the Holy Spirit produces the changed life of holiness in him. The fruit of the Spirit is produced in the saved soul: love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. -Gal. 5:22
Grace means God's hands are tied once I say the "sinner's prayer" and he is compelled to continually forgive me no matter how much ungodliness and worldly lusts I continue to partake of. Even receiving the mark of the beast will not separate me from the Love of Christ.	For the grace that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world:" (Titus 2:11, 12)

PAUL OFTEN MISUNDERSTOOD- NO GREASY GRACE

2 Peter 3:14-17 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless. And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you; As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

CHRISTIANITY FACT-CHECKING FALLS SHORT. ATHEISTS INTELLIGENCE DEPARTMENT LAUNCHES PROBE

These mentally challenged Christians believe all kinds of other conspiracy theories so why should any logical thinking person believe them when they talk about God and the Bible? I mean, their favorite fable begins with a talking snake of all things. A snake doesn't even have organs capable of speech. It's one tall tale after another – a virgin birth? What science is this?

An ad campaign, sponsored by atheists.org has taken on these hypocrites and is beating them at their own game. Combining our hatred for President Trump with our hatred of religion, we are asking people to “Make Holidays Great Again” by taking religion out of the picture. The ad (pictured below) appeared on hundreds of billboards across the country in 2017.

WOW NEWS

Billions of years ago, life on this planet began in a primordial soup which we do not know where it came from. We know this is true by a faith we call ‘science’ even though no one was available to witness, test or prove any of what we are postulating but we must reach far to avoid any thought of God being somehow involved.
