Ecclesiastes 9:1-3 For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them. All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath. This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that *they go to the dead

Benjamin Franklin January 17, 1706 - April 17, 1790

As a young man, Benjamin Franklin wrote a humorous epitaph for himself in which he described himself as “food for worms.” He did not intend this epitaph to be used as the official epitaph on his gravestone, (the wording for which he included in his Will). This funny version, however, was graven on a bronze plaque and mounted on a brick wall of the cemetery in which his body rests, for all to enjoy.

TUG & TIM MCGRAW

Tim McGraw, country phenom, wears a cowboy hat, stands in a spotlight and brings fans to a roar by striking all the right notes.

His dad, Tug McGraw, wore a baseball cap, stood on a pitcher's mound and brought fans to a roar by striking out opponents.

For Father's Day, COUNTRY WEEKLY brought together the McGraws, the father-and-son duo who started out the game of life with some catching up to do.

Born following his mother's summer romance, Tim didn't know until he was 11 that Tug was his father. They didn't really form a relationship until Tim was 18. Yet it's already certain they share one family trait — fame.

Tim's single, "Indian Outlaw," is this year's smash hit. His next single, "Don't Take the Girl," hit No. 1 on the Billboard country charts and his album, Not a Moment Too Soon, debuted at No. 1 on the country charts and later hit No. 1 on the Billboard 200 charts, usually home to rock and pop artists.

Tug made a career with the New York Mets and Philadelphia Phillies, preventing smash hits. Now, he likes listening to them.

"I listen to country music now, the way my dad started watching box scores when I started being a pitcher," Tug said.

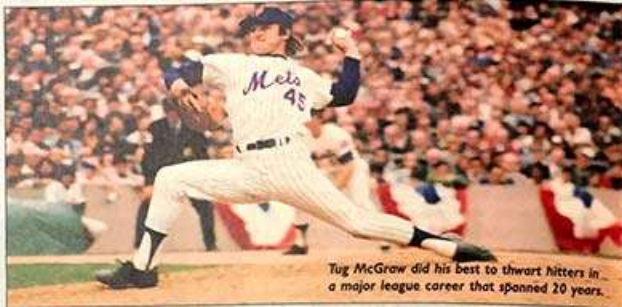

COUNTRY WEEKLY brought the McGraws together in New York City. Tim was in town to appear on the Late Show With David Letterman; Tug to celebrate the 25th anniversary of his World Series win as a New York Met.

Like father, like son? Yes and no. Though a glance at photos of each man separately wouldn't cause you to link the two, when Tim and Tug McGraw stand side by side, the resemblance is striking. They both have the same U-shaped face and similar features. Tug has a boyish face; Tim's is more angular.

Both can talk a good while, but where Tug seems like an

Live Like You Were Dying

Ecclesiastes 9:1-3 (NLT) ¹ This, too, I carefully explored: Even though the actions of godly and wise people are in God's hands, no one knows whether God will show them favor. ² The same destiny ultimately awaits everyone, whether righteous or wicked, good or bad, ceremonially clean or unclean, religious or irreligious. Good people receive the same treatment as sinners, and people who make promises to God are treated like people who don't. ³ It seems so wrong that everyone under the sun suffers the same fate. Already twisted by evil, people choose their own mad course, for they have no hope. There is nothing ahead but death anyway.

Live Like You Were Dying

Ecclesiastes 9:4-8 (NLT) ⁴ There is hope only for the living. As they say, “It’s better to be a live dog than a dead lion!” ⁵ The living at least know they will die, but the dead know nothing. They have no further reward, nor are they remembered. ⁶ Whatever they did in their lifetime—loving, hating, envying—is all long gone. They no longer play a part in anything here on earth. ⁷ So go ahead. Eat your food with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart, for God approves of this! ⁸ Wear fine clothes, with a splash of cologne!

Live Like You Were Dying

Eccl 9:9-12 (NLT)⁹ Live happily with the woman you love through all the meaningless days of life that God has given you under the sun. The wife God gives you is your reward for all your earthly toil. ¹⁰ Whatever you do, do well. For when you go to the grave, there will be no work or planning or knowledge or wisdom. ¹¹ I have observed something else under the sun. The fastest runner doesn't always win the race, and the strongest warrior doesn't always win the battle. The wise sometimes go hungry, and the skillful are not necessarily wealthy. And those who are educated don't always lead successful lives. It is all decided by chance, by being in the right place at the right time. ¹² People can never predict when hard times might come. Like fish in a net or birds in a trap, people are caught by sudden tragedy.

Live Like You Were Dying

John 10:10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

Luke 18:29-30 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

Live Like You Were Dying

Philippians 1:20-23 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not. For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

Live Like You Were Dying

Philippians 1:24-27 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again. Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

Live Like You Were Dying

Philippians 1:27-30 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel; And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

Romans 10:8-11 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which thou shalt confess with thy mouth, and shalt believe in thine heart: that God hath raised him from the dead, who he is Lord. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. Romans 10:17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

The Truth Is ...

We need to be planning our funerals NOW!

Physical death is not the “end of our existence”

We need to be thinking about life after death (& resurrection) and what THAT will be like.

We need to be viewing this current life as a vapor that appears only a second and then vanishes away

We need to be preparing for life which will last throughout eternity, forever and forever

There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah. The purchase of the field and of the cave that is therein was from the children of Heth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

Were Dying!

Romans 14:10-12 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.
