“We do not need to conclude, however, that the entire book is part of the canon of Scripture. Jude probably cited a part of 1 Enoch that he considered to be a genuine prophecy. Perhaps he referred to Enoch because the adversaries treasured the work, and thereby he used their own ammunition against them.”

“For we have not an innumerable multitude of books among us, disagreeing from and contradicting one another, [as the Greeks have,] but only twenty-two books, which contain the records of all the past times; which are justly believed to be divine; and of them five belong to Moses, which contain his laws and the traditions of the origin of mankind till his death. This interval of time was little short of three thousand years; but as to the time from the death of Moses till the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, who reigned after Xerxes, the prophets, who were after Moses, wrote down what was done in their times in thirteen books. The remaining four books contain hymns to God, and precepts for the conduct of human life. It is true, our history hath been written since Artaxerxes very particularly, but hath not been esteemed of the like authority with the former by our forefathers, because there hath not been an exact succession of prophets since that time; and how firmly we have given credit to these books of our own nation is evident by what we do; for during so many ages as have already passed, no one has been so bold as either to add any thing to them, to take any thing from them, or to make any change in them; but it is become natural to all Jews immediately, and from their very birth, to esteem these books to contain Divine doctrines, and to persist in them, and, if occasion be willingly to die for them.”

THE CHRISTIAN COLLECTION OF SCRIPTURE

The first NT “canon” was the Muratorian canon which was assumed compiled in AD 180 and included all of the New Testament except James, Hebrews, John 3 and 1 and 2 Peter. The Muratorian Canon included all of the New Testament books except Hebrews, James, 1 and 2 Peter, and 3 John.

Early Christian leaders examined each book and placed it the canon based on function, adaptability and stability, and continuous usage. In other words, a canonical work contains adaptable wisdom on how to live at any time. However, other factors come into play.

1. New Testament books had to come from the first century apostolic circle—either an apostle, companion of an apostle, or otherwise qualified individual (like a brother of Jesus).
2. Was the text consistent with the general doctrine and orthodox teaching?
3. The person named as author must be the author.
4. Does the book reflect the work of the Holy Spirit in terms of high morals and spiritual values?
5. Does the book have the divine capacity to transform lives?
6. Was it accepted as God’s Word by the people it was first delivered to?
7. The book must demonstrate inspiration from the Holy Spirit. Easily the most difficult to determine, inspiration remains the ultimate factor.

- 2 Timothy 3:16 “All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness,”
- Hebrews 4:12 “For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart.”
- Deuteronomy 4:2 “You must not add to or subtract from what I command you, so that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God that I am giving you.”
- Isaiah 55:8-9 “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways,” declares the Lord. As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.”

Enoch 40:8 After this I besought the angel of peace, who proceeded with me, to explain all that was concealed. I said to him, Who are those whom I have seen on the four sides, and who words I have heard and written down? He replied, The first is the merciful, the patient, the holy Michael. 9 The second is he who presides over every suffering and every affliction of the sons of men, the holy Raphael. The third, who presides over all that is powerful, is Gabriel. And the fourth, who presides over repentance, and the hope of those who will inherit eternal life, is Phanuel. These are the four angels of the most high God, and their four voices, which at that time I heard.

Enoch 22:9 At that time therefore I inquired respecting him, and respecting the general judgment, saying, Why is one separated from another? He answered,

Three separations have been made between the spirits of the dead, and thus have the spirits of the righteous been separated. 10 Namely, by a chasm, by water, and by light above it. 11 And in the same way likewise are sinners separated when they die, and are buried in the earth; judgment not overtaking them in their lifetime. 12 Here their souls are separated. Moreover, abundant is their suffering until the time of the great judgment, the castigation, and the torment of those who eternally execrate, whose souls are punished and bound there for ever. 13 And thus has it been from the beginning of the world. Thus has there existed a separation between the souls of those who utter complaints, and of those who watch for their destruction, to slaughter them in the day of sinners. 14 A receptacle of this sort has been formed for the souls of unrighteous men, and of sinners; of those who have completed crime, and associated with the impious, whom they resemble. Their souls shall not be annihilated in the day of judgment, neither shall they arise from this place. Then I blessed God,

TALMUDIC JEWISH “PURGATORY” VIEW: Rosh Hashanah 16b:15 Beit Shammai (in a baraita) says: There will be three groups of people on the great Day of Judgement: One of wholly righteous people, one of wholly wicked people, and one of middling people. Wholly righteous people will immediately be written and sealed for eternal life. Wholly wicked people will immediately be written and sealed for Gehenna, as it is stated: “And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall wake, some to eternal life and some to shame and everlasting contempt.” (Daniel 12:2). Middling people will descend to Gehenna to be cleansed and to achieve atonement for their sins, Rosh Hashanah 17a:1 and they will cry out in their pain and eventually ascend from there as it is stated: “And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried; they shall call my name and I will answer them.” (Zechariah 13:9). This is referring to the members of the third group, who requires cleansing.

CATHOLIC PURGATORY VIEW:

Purgatory is: ... a place or condition of temporal punishment for those who, departing this life in God's grace, are, not entirely free from venial faults, or have not fully paid the satisfaction due to their transgressions. (The Catholic Encyclopedia, newadvent.com)

REASONS FOR REJECTION

- 1) The Patriarch Enoch did NOT write the Book of Enoch
- 2) The events written about occur thousands of years earlier than the writing.
- 3) Jude quoting the one long sentence as two does not qualify the entire book of Enoch for consideration.
- 4) The focus/purpose of the does not teach about the God of the bible.

EXAMINING THE BOOK OF ENOCH FOR TRUTH

REASONS FOR REJECTION

- 1) The (Israelites)Jews rejected the book not attributing inspiration of the Spirit.
- 2) Over 99.9% of Christian groups rejected the book not attributing inspiration of the Spirit.
- 3) God didn't inspire it. Multiple teachings of the book are out of alignment or contradict with the known/agreed upon scriptures. Some fantastical myths are woven into the text giving it low plausibility.
